

'The Worst Witch' is a spellbinding, entertaining production of Jill Murphy's book adapted by Emma Reeves and directed by Theresa Heskins. It is a highly entertaining and energetic performance for families with kids of all ages. The small cast are extremely talented, the integrated musicians bring the production to life in a unique way. The set is both interesting and awesome. The performers hold you in a world that is both magical and full of humour. Be ready for broomstick rides, the strict Miss Hardbroom and the caring Miss Cackle as well as watching the girls as they travel through the ups and downs of their witch training. It was an extremely enjoyable evening.

Review by Niamh Humphrey, aged 10